A VERY SPECIAL THANK YOU

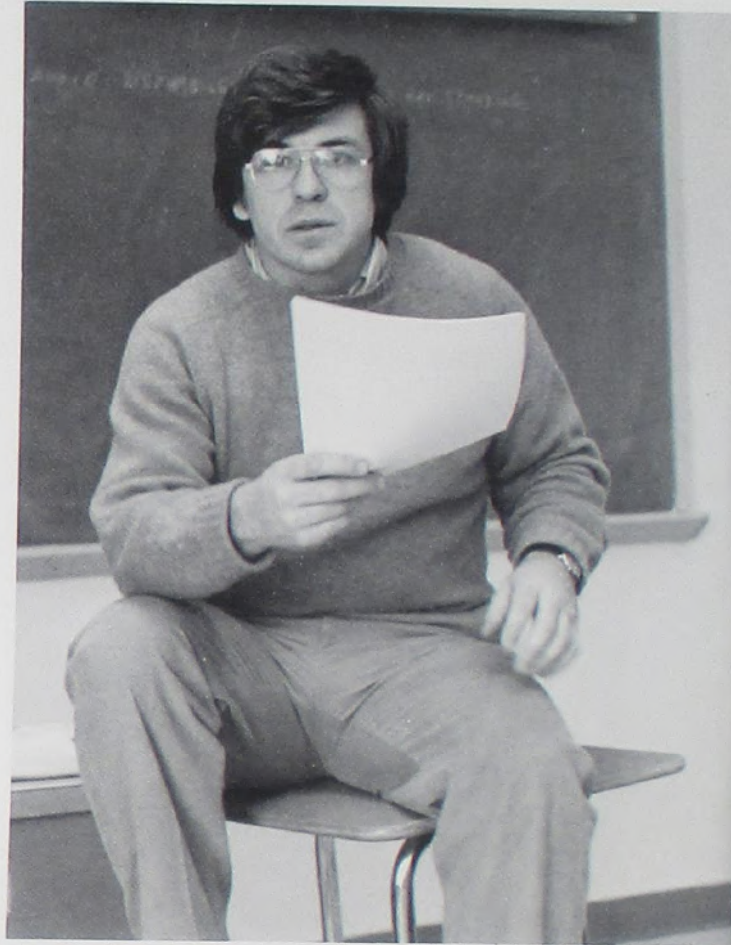

Mrs. Cindy Hunt
Yearbook Advisor

We'd like to utilize this space to give our sincerest thanks to Mrs. Cindy Hunt. Without her dedication and support, there would have been no yearbook this year. Cindy was always behind us 100%; cheering us on, keeping us going when we were discouraged, and jumping in to lend a helping hand when ever we needed her to, which was quite frequently. She has been much more than a yearbook advisor, she has been a friend, tried and true. We thank you whole-heartedly, Cindy, we couldn't have done it without you!!!

DEDICATION

This year's yearbook is dedicated to a teacher who teaches with his heart as well as his mind. William Dooling treats each of his students like mature human beings with their own unique abilities, problems, and personalities. Thus, he is not forced to demand respect, he earns it. His compassion and altruism seem to be limitless and he has done something to help each of us in some way. He does not merely talk; he speaks knowingly. He does not merely hear; he listens intently. Mr. Dooling is a teacher we the class of 1982 will not soon forget. He is most deserving of our admiration and deep-felt gratitude. Thank you, Mr. Dooling.

APPRECIATION

Mrs. Russ and Miss Galvin stepped in when we needed them most. They both saved us from what would have been a hopelessly uneventful senior year. More importantly, Mrs. Russ and Miss Galvin always gave the impression that they wanted us to have fun and enjoy our last year at Millis High. They put up with a lot of bickering and we'd like them to know that in spite of our frequent complaining, we sincerely do appreciate their time, effort, concern, and understanding. Mrs. Russ, Miss Galvin, Thanks!! We'll miss you both.

SUPERINTENDENT AND SCHOOL COMMITTEE

TO THE CLASS OF 1982:

Much is being written today about the issue of a vocational/technical education vs. a general/liberal education.

The demands for specialized training today in the technology field are so strong that the very existence of a liberal education is in jeopardy.

Whether one enters the world of higher education or the work force, one must be ever mindful of the qualities of a liberal education which our society must have. At the very foundation of any education is the ability to read, write, speak, and compute effectively.

I am confident that you have received that foundation in the Millis Public Schools. Use it to the best of your ability, because the knowledge you have gained is essential for resolving life's problems.

My best wishes are extended to each of you for a happy, successful future.

Sincerely yours,

William A. Vellante
Superintendent of Schools

MILLIS HIGH SCHOOL
MILLIS, MASSACHUSETTS 02054

To The Class of 1982:

I congratulate each and every one of you on your successful completion of this phase of your education. A high school diploma, although noteworthy, is only a beginning. It reflects an achievement of those skills necessary to pursue further academic or vocational accomplishments. Not always does it reflect the qualities needed for future success. Qualities such as desire, hard work, perseverance and a willingness to devote the same energies to those tasks which are less appealing as you would to the tasks which you delight in accomplishing are extremely important and will carry you far in this world.

My best wishes go with you for a successful and happy future and may education always remain foremost in your mind as you continue to develop the talents to meet your individual successes.

Sincerely,
PAUL A. BRUNELLE
Principal

To The Class of 1982:

Every graduating class possesses a unique quality that is inherent to that particular class. This quality is expressed both collectively and individually.

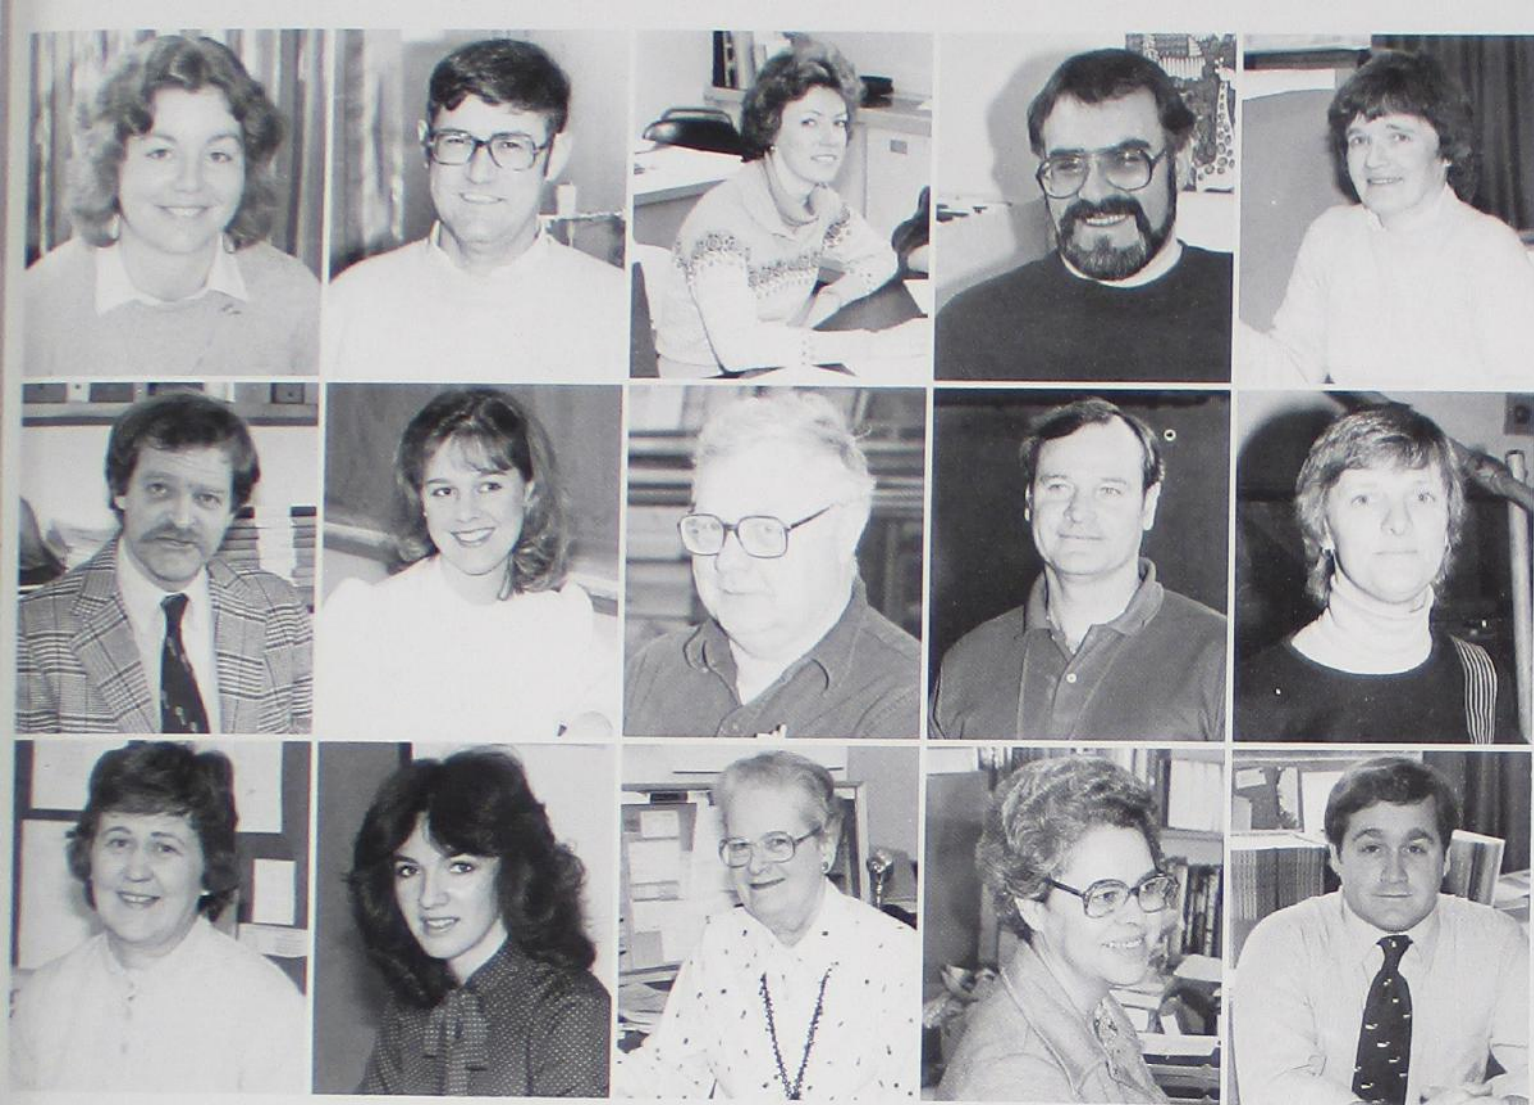

The Class of 1982 has expressed the qualities of sincerity, cooperation and dedication of purpose. Upon receiving your diploma, it is my sincerest wish that each of you will carry forth fond memories of your years at Millis High School.

Sincerely,
JOSEPH F. ARCUDI
Assistant Principal

SALUTATORIAN

Reverend Clergy, Members of the School Committee and Administration, Faculty, Family and Friends — WELCOME EVERYONE. As Salutatorian, I have the honor to welcome you who are here today to help us celebrate this auspicious occasion. I do this with a warm and open heart.

My purpose in giving this address is to raise the awareness of a serious choice that each one of us here must make with the beginning of each new day. Being aware of this choice will give each one of us a headstart to success. Relating this to one of my favorite activities, sports, we can either be a Player or a Spectator. As Spectators standing on the sidelines we eliminate the risk, but also the fun, the growing and the excitement that life has to offer. Be a PLAYER! Don't let life just happen. Be a part of it! Take CHARGE. In the end you benefit yourselves as well as the rest of the world. A sample from Buddha's teachings exemplifies this well: "Your actions will be returned — GOOD WITH GOOD, BAD WITH BAD."

It's your decision. Hopefully you'll decide to become a Player. And as a Player there will be weak moments when you'll want to just throw your hands up and say, "Is it worth it?" When we think of such possibilities as nuclear war and a drying-up Social Security System, it's not always easy to be strong. But with desire and determination it's very possible. With the knowledge that the world is a reflection of ourselves, we must become even more determined to be participating and enthusiastic Players, maintenant!

I'd like to take a moment to thank a special person who represents my idea of a Player. He's been my friend, my teacher, my staunchest supporter, and the best listener I know. Even when I was overcome with Senioritis a few months ago, I knew he'd still believe in me. The caring and communication that went into each one of his classes shows in the appreciation of all his students. There's so much more I could say, but I know how easily true Irishmen turn red so, Mr. Dooling, Thank You.

Also, as it is not everyday that I am able to publicly thank my parents, I would like to do so on behalf of my brothers, my sister and myself. The patience, guidance, and many inspirations you've given us make you deserving of the sincerest gratitude that each one of us hold for you both. Thank you, Mom and Dad.

With my purpose hopefully fulfilled, I would like to leave you with this thought ... Be happy, be involved, work hard, love and be loved — make every moment important!

And in spite of the busy roads we all must follow — Take time to smell the flowers along the way ...

Linda Booth

VALEDICTORIAN

This planet is in trouble. Some may choose to ignore this fact and remain secure and content but unified action is required if our existence is ever to be truly secure.

The first obstacle to be overcome is apathy. Helen Keller once said, "Science may have found a cure for most evils but it has found no remedy for the worst of them all, the apathy of human beings." This affliction of apathy has obvious symptoms such as the frequent occurrence of onlookers who will watch a crime being committed but not help the victim.

Equally as injurious are the most subtle symptoms manifested in people's attitudes concerning broader issues. People feel powerless. They consider themselves one small person in a very large world and all they should concern themselves with are their problems. This attitude has contributed to the continued existence of many of the atrocities in the world today.

High on this list of atrocities is the threat of nuclear war. The simple fact that man can now destroy the entire earth with the maximum amount of suffering should be enough to convince any rational human that this must be stopped, but nuclear proliferation continues. This is one issue however, whose dreadful magnitude has shattered the contentment of many and caused them to rise above their apathy. So many are making themselves heard that there have been major steps taken by the Government towards finding a solution. This demonstrates how very important each individual can be.

Many other issues require this sort of attention from the American people. We have lost many of our gains in the fight to save the environment. People are suffering because cuts have been made in programs that help people in order to fund weapons which do nothing but kill and of immediate concern to many here are the cuts in student aid.

Hopefully as this class leaves the protected microcosm of high school we will become more aware of the dire circumstances surrounding us and take on some responsibility of seeking solutions to these formidable maladies.

As John F. Kennedy said, "Our problems are man made, therefore they may be solved by man, and man can be as big as he wants. No problem of human destiny is beyond human beings."

Reverend Clergy, Members of the School Committee, Mr. Vellante, Mr. Brunelle, Mr. Arcudi, Faculty, Parents, Relatives and Friends.

I can not believe that my year in Millis is almost over. I guess that like everything I enjoy, my stay here went really fast, and here I am now, without even realizing that, in three weeks, I will be leaving Millis to go back to Spain.

It was about ten months ago, two days before I was going to take the airplane to the United States, when the AFS president in Spain called me to tell me that I was going to a small town, somewhere in Massachusetts. The first thing that came to my mind back then, was a little I learned about the Pilgrims in school, a lot I heard about the Kennedys, something about Boston, and nothing at all about a little town called Millis. Initially I was disappointed because I couldn't even find Millis on the map. Well, I don't feel that bad now that I know that not many people in Massachusetts know where Millis is.

I also know now that, that little point on the map has become a big part of my experience; especially since it helped me to realize that people are the same no matter where you go:

— Students worry about their grades and who is having the next party.

— Parents worry about their grades and who is having the next party.

This has been a great year; a year that won't be easy to forget thanks to the special dedication of many people who made it possible, people such as Mr. Brunelle and each and every one of my teachers and coaches, who taught me much more than English, Calculus, Basketball or Volleyball. I want to thank too, the Russos, the Mennes, all my friends, and especially Lau and Maryann; not only because I spent with them the best time of my stay in Millis, but because they gave me the support I needed when I was going through difficult times.

Finally, I just want to finish quoting a person who has become very special to me during this year, and who some days ago, gave me the perfect way to say goodbye:

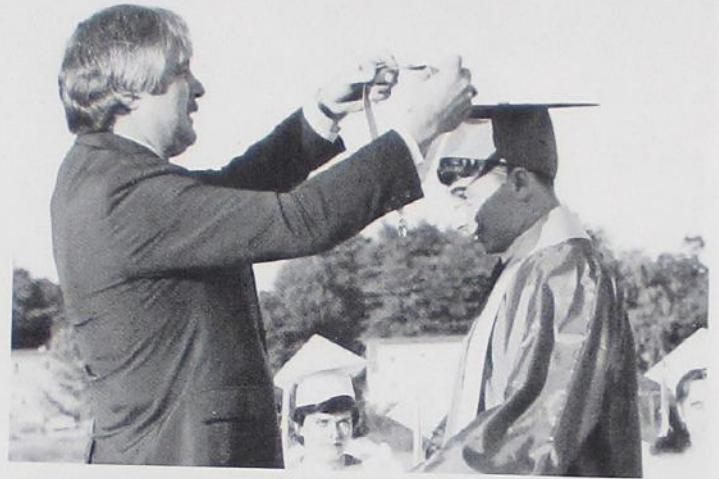

"Just think of my leaving as a long vacation, from which, you can expect me back soon."

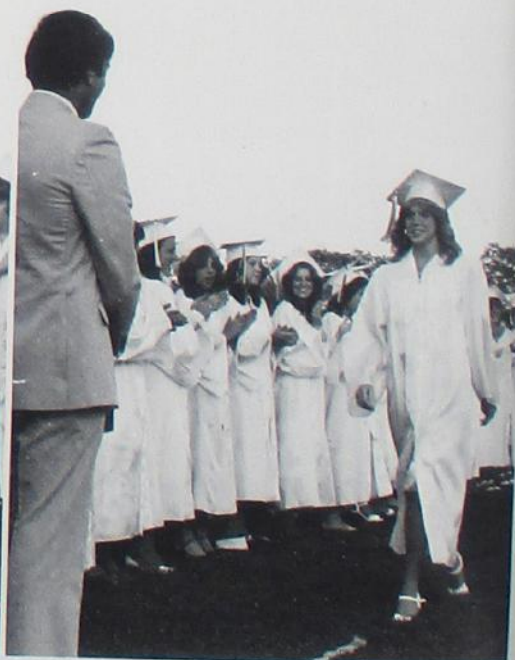

THANK YOU VERY MUCH.

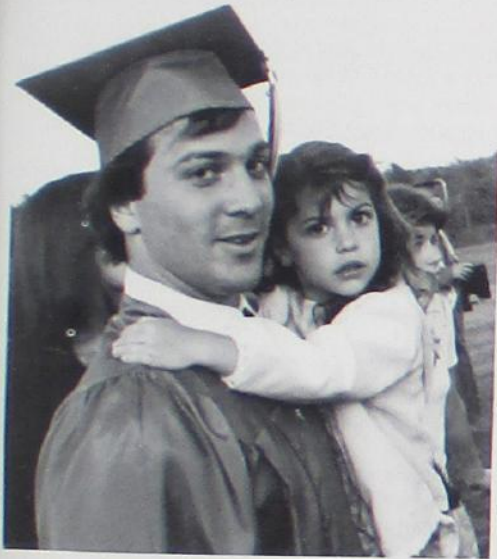

GRADUATION

Laurie and Gregg

- L — We, the class of 1982 of Millis High School are pleased to share with you our very special class history.
- G — It all started 13 years ago in kindergarten when RANDY BURSTYN wouldn't drink plain milk, so every day when we had our milk she had to put coffee flavored syrup in it. One day the cap came off and it spilled all over her.
- L — TRICIA KILMARTIN had a horrifying experience when on the way home from the bus stop, a bully stepped on her Little Kiddle lunch box and sent her crying home.
- G — This brings us to the big production of wake up Santa Claus. BETH WHITE had her theatrical debut as a rooster in this play.
- L — The big thrill of the day was finding a four leaf clover. Many of us honest students were so hungry for victory, we used to tape on an extra leaf just to get a tootsie roll.
- G — In second grade WAYNE DEVENS started his never ending chase of girls by trying to get all the girls into the closet for a quarter.
- L — TED CANNON also had a way with the young girls. He had a birthday party consisting of 10 girls and 3 boys!
- G — TIM GRAHAM didn't have such good luck, he used to cry when his pencils were stolen. This year also brought us all up on stage in a Thanksgiving play.
- L — Mrs. Levasseur's third grade class made a book containing each one of our future careers. I wonder if PETER WORKS will be that desired truck driver.
- G — It was this year also when RHEE BOSSE found a way to keep cute little BRUCE HECKMAN in his seat. Rhee spilled a whole bottle of Elmers Glue on Bruce's seat.
- L — In fourth grade one day when the class was building a terrarium, someone put a frog on SHARON BARRETT'S chair, knowing she hated them more than anything. HOLLI BOLZANI still has the bruises to prove the abuse she used to get from RICHARD GILBERT.
- G — AMY REGER and LAURIE ROBINSON were often found drawing creative pictures of the human anatomy.
- L — Fifth grade started the seven year partnership of GREGG ANDONIAN and GORDY ANGEL playing with each other in the backfield.
- G — KRIS WALSH was so nervous when she was asked out for the first time — she cried. This did not seem to upset DAVID MEUSE too much, he proceeded to ask out every girl in the class. I guess David — If at first you don't succeed try, try again.

- L — Sixth grade's heart-throb KIRK MAHAR disappointed a lot of girls when he picked RITA CONGDON over all of us.
- G — During our Sixth grade play "I sincerely Doubt This Old House is Haunted", SHARON BARRETT and JOE D'ERAMO had their first kiss on stage.
- L — During practices LINDA BOOTH was found in the closet with BRIAN SULLIVAN by someone who was looking for props for the play.
- G — This is the year LORI LAMBIRTH first got her name Lambi, by a teacher who had a funny walk and called his son "the kid".
- L — Seventh grade was the beginning of boy-girl parties. BETH WHITE was the holder of many of these. At one party JEAN LAGOS and GORDY ANGEL were wondering what to do after 1, 2, 3!
- G — KRIS SYCAMORE had the end of the year bash which found PETER MURPHY & PAM GREEN walking in the field together, while many others were playing spin the bottle including TODD GOVE, KENNY SACCOMAN, & PAUL HOWARD.
- L — In eighth grade the guys were well aware of the newcomers to our class — ANNA GARCIA, GAYLE DOGNAZZI, & MELINDA THOMAS.
- G — During the Junior National Honor Society induction ceremonies, LIZ "GRACEFUL" GITTINS fell down from the stands taking her chair with her.
- L — This year was the start of AMY REGER'S annual summer tent parties. Her first one was a memorable one when some certain girls were spotted flying up the hill.
- G — CAROLYN FREESE will always be remembered for the many times she was kicked out of Ms. Francer's chorus.
- L — In ninth grade in Mrs. Morrill's advanced biology class, JEANNE TRAVERS attempted the daring feat of picking up a pen while still seated. She then gracefully took the desk and her books down with her.
- G — In tenth grade KRIS HOURIGAN caused some trouble by getting kicked out of Mrs. Rainer's spanish class. In eleventh grade we had some newcomers — LISA O'CONNELL and CHUCK ILSLEY.
- L — PAULA alias "crash" DOUGANS earned her name while driving through the center of town with a car load of friends. Well Paula, that was only your first week of driving, what will happen next??
- G — Our Junior Talent Show was a success with "New York, New York" the smash hit ...
- L — and we'll always remember the fun we had messing up!!!!
- G — Now it was time for our Junior Prom at The Hilton Hotel in Natick. The prom was really fun and the bash at PAUL ALBANI'S Manomet beachhouse was even better, unaffected by the stormy weather.
- L — In eleventh grade we found out that KIM McCANDLESS has a tendency to fall asleep at parties, including her own.
- G — Something seemed to attract NANCY, LAURIE, KRIS, AMY, CINDY, KIM and MELINDA to Rhode Island that summer, and we still can't figure out whether it was the Allie's donuts or the guys on Scarborough beach!!!!!!

- L — This brings us to our awesome senior year with many spontaneous events, including our trip to Boston. The majority of us went to Quincy market while some guys took a detour to the well-known Combat Zone.
- G — CINDY CRONIN did a fine job as drum major this year as well as in "Arsenic and Old Lace". We're all very thankful to KATHY ADAMS for her hard work on the set.
- L — We had a great time on the Class Trip especially when JIM DeANGELIS deshorted MICHAEL JOHNSTON. Mike was heard to say "Jim, I'm going to get you, not today, not tomorrow, but someday!" — look out.
- G — CLINTON KEITH barely made it to the bus, but he managed to flag us down before we left. DAROL BISHOP wasn't as lucky, Darol thumbed down to the Frank Davis Resort just making it in time for lunch.
- L — PETER HUNT learned the consequences of throwing a hard-headed person like LYNNE COYLE into the pool. It was too bad we didn't use PAM BOUDROT in the stern of the boat in the canoe race. I guess we can't have both brains and strength — Gregg!!!!
- G — On the bus ride home we had some exciting events — the girls tried to fit as many people into the bathroom as possible.
- L — Our senior year was one of the best ones ever but there are certain qualities that don't belong to any one year:
- G — JOHN ST. CYR has always had a young girl on his arm, starting with LAURA VOGT.
- G — STEVE DONAHUE will never forget the Westwood track meet.
- L — PAUL ZONFRELLI, alias "Johnny Love" will forever be remembered as the lady's man. BILL ANDREWS' and JAN SLEEPERS' debating will probably go on forever unless one of them comes up with something they both agree on.
- G — Mrs. Russ' English class will never let SCOTT COUSLAND live down the close run in that he had with a pine tree in the school drive-way. PETER TURGEON can always be seen with a coffee mug and a can of chew.
- L — No one will ever forget our foreign exchange student, YOLANDA CHALMETA. Yo joined our senior year and made it more enjoyable for everyone. We'll miss you Yolanda!!
- G — Those who chose to leave MHS earlier than the rest of us are: BARBARE KEROSKY, KATHY BRODERICK, DONNA AULENBACK, DONNA DWYER, TOM JESSUP and DENISE THIBAUT.
- L — Although ANNA GARCIA left early to attend classes, she was often in the sunroom to say hello. Anna also held a great semi-formal at the end of April. CHRIS "STORKA" O'ROURKE will probably own an Exxon station someday.
- G — SCOTT GILBERT also left us early but we're happy to have him back for graduation and the Senior Banquet. JIM D'ANGELIS and GORDY HEALY tied up the competition in driving up the hill at the pits and the swallows.
- L — There is one group of girls who are well known for their inseparableness throughout the years: MARTHA STEVENS, LIZ GITTENS, MARIANNE KIRBY, KRIS FAIRFIELD, and TRICIA DIGGINS.
- G — BOB EVERS is still trying to sell his classical car. MICHAEL WALSH and KENNY BEYER win the award for most tardiness.

- L — NORMAN LONG found a long-lasting girlfriend in PAT BURNETT, a newcomer this year.
- G — KRIS HOURIGAN remembers the day Mr. Arcudi's office almost blew up. It's too bad they never caught the people who did it.
- L — JANET BURNETT and MICHELLE GOULD started their cheering early in pop-warner football and have done a good job at cheering the Mohawk Football team on. TORRI RICHARDS found that racketball was to be her best sport winning a championship in the sport. God job "T".
- G — VALERIE BERGEN, PAM BOUDROT, and GAYLE DOGNAZZI are well known for their infamous "chun checkin'".
- L — GARY LAMBERTON and TOM JESSUP were often seen in Gary's backyard, working on some old car.
- G — We seem to have many quiet people in our class, contrary to popular belief, they are: PETER WORKS, LORI YERED, MAUREEN SOMMERS, TED CHISOLM, MAUREEN SMITH, CHRIS DOHERTY, DAVID DEFANTI, and TERRY CHISOLM.
- L — JOE D'ERAMO, alias "Baby Huey", is still wondering about States. If anyone was ever looking for KAREN THURSTON, they were simply directed down 109 to Medfield, Karen's second home.
- G — JOEL INGRAHAM aquired many names throughout the years: Jello, Headly, and Jo-el. WAYNE RAWDING was envied by all in the French class because he got to skip a year of French on account of his photographic memory.
- L — DAVID BORGESON'S unique driving skills are remembered by all of us who have ever met up with him on the road. DENISE RADCLIFF had a busy senior year with Tom and her job at McDonald's. We think her priorities are in that order, too.
- G — BILL VACCARO and ANDY McNULTY could always be found in the Computer Science room, unlike MARK SULLIVAN and ROBERT CLIFFORD, who were hardly ever in school, once they were on work study.
- L — JULIE LEIGHTON'S other side really came out at the banquet when Julie was seen dancing with a couple of guys; at once.
- G — Nicknames from grade school often don't stick but the two that have are MICHAEL SHEA'S — Homba; and LISA CAREY'S — Canary.
- L — CHRIS MANNING made her big television debut this year when she appeared on the screen of "People are Talking." MELISSA GRANT found that Mrs. Welch's seating arrangement was for the better when she got to know John better.
- G — JANE OLSON and LISA VANTHIEL found a good friendship this year as did the ski-bums of our class, NEIL IVORY and PETER LATOSEK.
- L — MANNY GOES is known for his nice brown car while ROGER KONEY is known for his "green bomber".
- G — We hope this history is taken in the humorous manner in which it was given.
- L — Tonight we undertake our last two events as a class, graduation and the party afterwards.
- G — The end of our class will be a sad occasion, but to those who realize it is not the end ...
- Both — ... it will be a joyful beginning.
YEA!!!

CLASS WILL

Lisa and Paula

We, the class of one thousand nine hundred and eighty-two being of sound mind and body, do here by write and hand down our last will and testament to posterity there by voiding all other wills previously issued.

Laurie Robinson: leaves Kelly the name "Kegger" one can of mink, a splat of butter and dinner with a trache.

Jan Sleeper: leaves Wayne Devens a deck of Poker Cards — she leaves Miss Gourley no one to correct her corrections. — She leaves Sue Mael the key to Randy's lock. — She also leaves Nina and Maureen with Armando for the rest of the year.

Maureen Smith: leaves her brother 1 point for Mrs. Power's short story class, and she hopes he passes.

Maureen Summers: leaves Millis High and she leaves her sister, Barbara and Dianne all the good times she had.

Martha Stevens: leaves Kathy Van Roekel a rent free gym locker and a can of family size deodorant.

John St. Cyr: leaves behind 2 Jennifers, one he loves & will always remember and one he wishes he could forget, but does love. — John also leaves his brother Joel behind to watch them both.

Kris Sycamore: leaves Kelly Smith in charge of recreational activities at Syc's Pub and also a huge crown for the next king she crowns.

Melinda Thomas: leaves her sister Chris the "Mau" for her to worry about. — She leaves the nurse lots of love and thanks. — She also leaves cow a free ride on the pig.

Karen Thurston: leaves Millis High with the warning that her brother is yet to come. — She also leaves Michele in one piece.

Jeanne Travers: leaves Powie some self esteem. — Jean also leaves her brother a broken tennis racquet.

Lisa VanThiel: leaves her brother some luck so he'll never get caught. Maybe he will beat the system like her.

Kris Walsh: leaves best of luck to next years track team.

Nancy Wenger: leaves Missy Statler her numbers and her lucky rabbits foot. — She also leaves shaking from Janice's first driving lesson and also to Janice she leaves a big hug.

Beth White: leaves Rob and Maureen an invitation to brunch at Sandy's — She also leaves Kelly and Sarah with the promise that the "P's" will keep on cheerin' forever.

Lori Yered: leaves all her reading tactics to Mrs. Rovedo and she hopes someone else will come along and love it like she did.

Paul Zonfrelli: leaves his brother Robert to find another Gladys — Paul leaves Skippy Delany to finish med school — Paul also leaves the student body to find someone else to idolize.

Two Anonymous students leave Mrs. Gourley a complete book of poetry.

Larry, Curly and Mo: leave next year's tennis team a copy of James Taylors Album "Handy Man."

Nancy, Melinda, and Carolyn: leave John Sjogren a moose and a fish, Todd Vinton a speckled dog and Steven Smith a free ride on the whirly thing. (We know how much you liked that ride Smitty.)

Cindy and Amy: leave Mr. Hyde a case of Diet Pepsi and the jazz band a trophy stolen from Foxboro.

Amy and Kris: leave with a secret worth $20.00.

Laurie and Lori: leave Chipper a new chariot.

Kim and Laurie: leave David and John on the Continental Divide.

Karen and Paula: leave Michele and Janice another fun-filled trip to Florida — and to Mrs. Russ a thank you for her patience and 32 talkatives.

Kris and Amy: leave T.J. a roll of film and many thanks for an excellent time.

Amy, Chris, Cindy, Laurie, and Nancy: leave beach bound with chocolate covered donuts! They also leave Kim a Baby Ruth Bar.

Traditional English II Advanced class leaves Mrs. Russ lots of luck with Gus.

The Calculus Class leaves Cange a new wardrobe complete with matching ties or his new class sunglasses to protect their eyes from the old bright ones.

Mr. Salerno's Block 5 physics A class: leaves him the title of toy master.

Mr. Fair's old homeroom 135 leaves him no one to sing Happy Birthday.

Mr. Dooling: a lot of love and respect which he truly deserves.

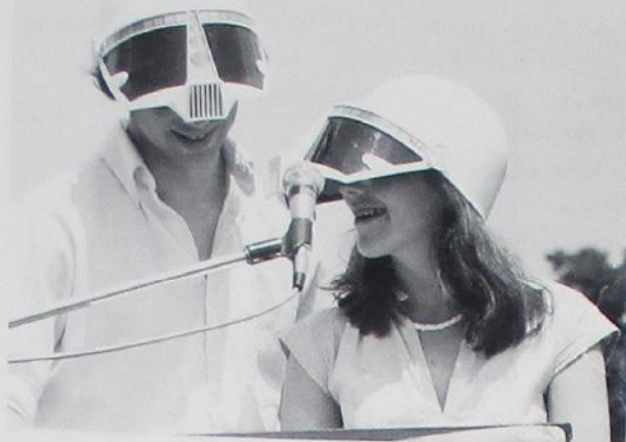

To Mrs. Russ: We leave lots of luck with Wall or Vi and many thanks for helping our class.

To Miss Galvin: we leave thanking her for all her help, we couldn't have done it without her.

To Mr. Brunelle we also leave many thanks and the best of luck for next year.

Mr. Arcudi: we will take with us.

In conclusion, we pray that no one herein mentioned will take offense, but will receive this testament in the manner in which it was given.

Chris and Kris

— Ready for take-off, Storka?

— Yes, all systems go.

— Gee, what a wild reunion! I can't wait to hit the moon.

— I can wait! I'm getting sick and tired of dropping the babies in the wrong crater.

— Oh yeh, business is really booming for you due to all those Dicky Dill Pickles that Hagop has been selling to your customers.

— Right. Did you get a chance to see Sharon Barrett? She's a top notch opera singer. She even has her own personal hair dresser, Donna Aulenback. Sharon's favorite song to sing around Christmas time is deck the halls with Holly Bolzoni, Fa la la la la la la la la.

— I couldn't believe Kathy Broderick and Maureen Smith were singing along with Sahron, it must have been those cookies that Robert Clifford and Mark Sullivan brought to the reunion from their Rasta Pastry Shop.

— Don't Norm Long and Pat Burnett have a shop right next to it called the "Norm and Pat, Pat and Norm." T-shirt shop for lovers? Norm was telling me about that terrible day when Kenny Beyer, Scott Cousland, Bill Vaccaro, and Mike Walsh turned his front window into a drive-thru window; due most likely to the four boys' perfected driving skills.

— I can't believe some of our classmates are actually making money! I mean, look at David Defanti, he's rolling in the dough. He's president of Dupont, Inc. Hey, and speaking of money, Chuckie Isley made a smart move by buying Konehead Insurance for his car from Roger Koney. David Borgesen seemed to be Roger's biggest customer this year.

— And look who made it big in the sport's world. It seems Joe D'Eramo made the starting team with Spacely Sprocket playing basketball. Chris Fairfield signed with the Cogswell Cogs' championship team.

— Hey Kris, guess who flew in from Guadalahara.

— Who?

— The universally famous No No's, starring Laurie Robinson, Kim McCandless, Kris Sycamore, Cindy Cronin, and Belinda, no I mean Melinda Thomas. I heard Melinda left the group to start the trio dress shop with Rhee Bosse and Kris Walsh. And Kris Sycamore left, too, to join the submarine business with Rita Congdon and Janet Burnett, who are the proud owners of the Hari Kari Sub Shop. But don't ask them to make a sub for you because all they'll say is "How you do that?"

— Storka, I think the No No's are pretty funky, but I thought the Pops' were even better, you know that new band called the Billy Andrews Brothers? They use tools instead of instruments. You should see Peter Works on the welder. Jan Sleeper is the lead singer and Ted Chisolm plays a mean chisle.

— I was talking to Martha Stevens, Tricia Diggins, Lisa O'Connel and Liz Gittens who were in a corral wearing really chic Adam's Apples Jeans from the famous designer Kathy Adams. The horses seemed to be enjoying the apples more than the girls.

— David Meuse really went into a neat occupation — cave exploring. We can see Wayne Rawding, Terri Chisolm, and Bruce Heckman digging up some strange crystals. David discovered Amy Reger making fabulous pictures on the walls of the cave.

— All of Denise's years of fishing have really paid off; she really made quite a catch of perch.

— Marianne Kirby and Beth White are the proud owners of the Purple Kirby Derby Club, where Val Bergen Burgers and Hot Dognazzi's are the specialty of the club.

made possible by the Rent a wreck & Cheap Heaps, owned by Jimmy DeAngelis, Gary Lamberton and Tom Jessup.

— Teddy Cannon really progressed after college; he became the host of "Dance Fever". I guess his past experiences as a dangerous disco-er came in handy. David Borgeson is Ted's co-host; Boy Dave sure can BOOGIE!!

— Speaking of boogying, Peter Hunt and Lynn Coyle were the champions of Dance Fever, this week. No matter how much Lynn doesn't want to get on the dance floor, Peter always finds a way to get her out there; and the funny thing is he always winds up on the injured list.

— I guess after the dance routines on Dance Fever, all the contestants take the Jeanne Travers & Mark Sullivan "For three bills" Limo. Service to the Buddy Buddy Bar owned by the four buddies; Gordon Angel, Wayne Devens, Mike Shea, and Peter Turgeon. Karen Thurston and Paula Dougans are the parking attendants at the Buddy Buddy Bar because they're such good buddies. But make sure they park your car in the right driveway. The buddies are throwing a wild bash for Scott Gilbert who came back for the class reunion along with Yolanda Chalmeta. We see Neil Ivory and Peter Latosek and Andy McNulty, who are the suppliers to the bash from Canada with Moosehead.

— When Scott returned for the reunion, he couldn't stay with Norman so he decided to stay at the Howard Johnson's owned and operated by James Michael Johnston and Paul Howard. Their specialty is their wake-up call service, performed by Darol Bishop and Clinton Keith. Where was that call 10 years ago on the 50 yard line?

— Donna Dwyer and Barb Kerosky are exotic dancers at the Buddy Buddy Bar.

— Surprisingly, Paul Albani made it as a public defender. He sticks up for the rights of juvenile bashes. Todd Gove, Paul's gopher, crashed all the parties to retrieve evidence.

— Linda Booth seems to be the big cheese at STRAF headquarters. She has the solution to nuclear war; using L.N.G.

— Linda's breakthrough on natural gas was the main topic on the Steve Donahue Show. Paul Zonfrelli was on that same show introducing his new candy bar: the Paulie Zonka Bar. Anna Garcia was the guest singer on that Steve Donahue Show.

— I hear the Limo. arrangements for the Steve Donahue Show were — Boy Kris, I was down the Cape last week and I saw Kris Hourigan, Crissy Manning, and Denise Thibolt working as security guards at the St. Queer Club in Provincetown, owned and operated by John St. Cyr. It seems every time Greenie's Angels (Pam Green, Julie Leighton, Maureen Somers, and Randy Burstyn) come into town, the local cops, Tricia Kilmartin and Lisa Vanthiel, break up all the gay fun.

— I couldn't believe it when Tim Graham approached Dr. Manny Goes with a bad case of neck sores; Manny is an accomplished Hickeyopractor.

— The hot and spicy Michelle Goulden Mustard was excellent on those Duo Dela Deli sandwiches provided by Tricia and Mike Delaporta.

— After Joel Ingraham made it big at Harvard, he bought his own Dingey Club called "Ingey's Dingeys". His first-mate is Chris Doherty.

— Jane Olson certainly changed; she took over the Folgers Crystals Commercials, after she divorced Tarzan.

— Jean Lagos, Torri Richards, and Nancy Wenger opened their own trophy shop selling their own trophies. I think we should get a trophy for writing this.

— I'm hungry, Stork. Let's get an ice cream at the Tasty Freese run by Carolyn Freese. Melissa Grant, Lori Yered and Randy Burstyn are always burstin' with delight when you buy a cone.

— I thought it was neat that Lori Lambirth and Lisa Carey, the famous playwrights, came in from Broadway just before their play "Rape of the Lock" opened at the Gus Russ Memorial Theatre. I heard that Kenny Saccoman was trying to sell his tickets to that show for $125.00. What a squeal!!

— Well, we're almost at the moon. Thanks to Gordon Healy's reliable EM-50, this trip has been a success.

— Boy I'm glad we didn't rent a Cheap Heap.
